MBA Program
BUSINESS 500 – Tuition and Credits by Module
2012

Overview: Business 500 is a one semester course taught in four modules each by a different instructor. The course covers all of the undergraduate business prerequisites required for entry into the MBA Program. You must apply for acceptance into the MBA Program in order to take Business 500. Admission to the MBA program is dependent upon completion of each module with a grade of “C” or better.

Based on prior undergraduate course work, some students may be able to waive one or more of the modules (subject to review and approval by the Dean and MBA Director). Modules are self contained and “stand-alone”, meaning that each required module must be taken in its entirety.
